TINY ParenTip of THE MONTH

Parenting is a 24-7, year-round job for which there is no training, no job description, no salary, no vacation or sick leave, and no unemployment benefits but it's secure: you can count on steady work for at least 18 years!

HERE IT IS! THE NEW ParentKidsRight.com MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

- Still FREE to subscribers
- Shorter items for our busy parents
- Same format because readers told us they don't want to open a link, they want to read it quickly right then and there.
- If parents want to save a newsletter, we've taken care of that too. No need to print. Every Newsletter is archived when it is sent.
- Newsletters are my personal, quirky, sometimes topical notes to parents about parenting, children, and life.
- If any readers have an idea for a Newsletter (or a ParenTip topic) go to info@ParentKidsRight.com and tell us.
- Tell your friends and have your friends spread the word right now! The first five NEW newsletter subscribers get a special prize. They can each chose to order either my book, ParentTips, or my late husband's children's book, Two Arizona Black Birds, FREE OF CHARGE! Tell your friends to go to www.ParentKidsRight.com to become a subscriber RIGHT NOW!
- Every month I will call your attention to a previous Paren Tip or group of ParenTips for a specific reason.
